

Road Race

Common Ground 5-Miler Windsor Sept. 24

Times were better this year as the rains didn't fall as they usually have for this race. In fact, it was a fresh, sparkling morning—even a little on the cool side. But everyone got quite warm on that final big hill—there is a big, long downhill to match it at the start. Winner Todd Coffin was seen running with his baby stroller as the back-of-the-packers came in. One of the nicest features of this race is the free admission to the Common Ground Fair. (LT)

Common Ground Fair 5 Miler - September 26

This year's Common Ground Fair opened under beautiful sunny skies drawing record numbers of fair goers. The annual 5 mile road race also set an attendance record as runners lined up at the start line under threatening clouds and finished in pouring rain. Todd Coffin led all runners taking the lead early and finishing in a fine 26:25, while Team Maine's Julia Kirtland continued her very strong running with a sixth place overall time of 30:12 - more than a minute and a half ahead of the next woman runner.
