

MID-WINTER CLASSIC

On Sunday, Feb. 7, 1982 52 brave runners faced the elements to run this 10 miler at SMVTI, put on by the Maine Track Club. The temperature at the start was about 20^o with a southwest wind. The course ran through South Portland, and Cape. When it was all over the first two finishers, Werner Pobatschnig in 53:02 and John Keller 53:55 had broken the old record held by Bob Winn (54:01). The first female, Kim Beaulieu, 63:47, had a fine run as always. All 52 finished.

Charles Scribner