

Mid-Winter 10 Mile Classic

February 3 - 1991

Shorts and singlets were the uniform of the day at the 10th running of this race, as temperatures soared into the 50's. Tom Dann of Keenebunk, winner of the Fore River Challenge half marathon and the New Year's Portland 5K, could not stay with the surge delivered at 7 miles by Chip Pierce of Westfield, Vermont and had to settle for a 2nd place finish. Pierce's time of 52:56 compared closely with Todd Coffin's course record of 52:11 set last year. Mary Ann Doss held off Christine Braceras' late surge for 2nd place behind another strong performance by Veronica Knight. Race directors Marla Keefe and Bob Payne report a record field of 206 official finishers on this TAC certified course. They promised similar weather conditions for future Maine Track Club races!

MID-WINTER CLASSIC

CLOCKWISE:  Would you believe that this is the start of the Midwinter Classic on Feb 3rd? The front line is, l to r; Sean Keough with sunglasses, Scott Ellis with crossed arms, Stephen Fluet rubbing his hands together, eventual winner, Chip Pierce (577), Roland Thibault of Westbrook, Tom Dann leaning forward, and Jeremy King adjusting his hat.  Jim Bunnell of the Bay Club shows his delight with his 1:02:03 finish.  At 3 miles Tom Thibeau of Gardiner leads triathlete Stephen Fluet of South Portland and Scott Ellis of Topsham. Tom and Scott maintained their pace to finish in 5th and 6th place, but Stephen developed problems.  Bob Coughlin, 52, won his age group with a 63:17. After the race he confided to MR that he runs to control his weight. Already one of the top senior runners in Maine, I wonder what would his times be like if he trained for performance. Bob runs with Russ Connors and Jim Toulouse in the Cape Elizabeth area, maintaining 60 miles per week for the entire year. Look for an in-depth profile of Bob in a future issue. We have to learn more about his training methods. It can't be all genes!  Tom Dann (523) and Chip Pierce match strides for 7 miles.

Tom recalled after, "It was really fun, I wish I could have stayed with him to the end, but I wasn't ready for that." Tom was pleased with his time which was only one minute off Todd Coffin's 1990 record run. He likes the longer distance races as he plans to do the Hyannis half-marathon and was interested in running Vern Demmons' 25k "Championship Run" on April 6 in Rockland. Jeremy King of Boothbay Harbor remained in 3rd place to the finish. Jeremy hails from New Bedford via Bangor and Ellsworth areas.
