

IN HARD LUCK.

Portland Deserved Much But Got Little.

Kent's Hill An Easy Winner At The Bowdoin Meet.

Westbrook Seminary In Second Place.

Good Showing of Skowhegan And Edward Little.

SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.

Brunswick, May 25.—The Bowdoin invitational intercollegiate meet, which took place in Brunswick this afternoon, was a great success from all points of view.

The following schools were represented: Brunswick, Brunswick, Deering, Auburn, Freeport, Fryeburg, Farmington, Good Will Farm, Kent's Hill, Maine Central Institute, Portland, Skowhegan, Thornton, Westbrook High and Westbrook Seminary.

Kent's Hill was an easy winner, gaining 46 points. Her two best men were Denning and Allen. These two men also won the meet for Kent's Hill last year.

Westbrook Seminary created quite a surprise by winning second place. The work of her team was exceptionally good.

Our Portland team won two points. This looks like a meagre record for such a large school to make, but it really does not represent the work done by the Portland boys.
