

PENTATHLON CHAMPION HURT

Broken Leg Eliminates Athlete

From Olympic Games.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Robert Legendre, national pentathlon champion and winner of that title in the interallied games at Paris, broke his leg today while training and will not be able to compete in athletic events this season.

Legendre's home is in Lewiston, Me.
