

Legendre Would Become A Motion Picture Star

Washington, May 30. — Robert Legendre, Georgetown University's star field and track athlete and three winner of the Pentathlon championship, will forsake the cinder path for the career of a motion-picture actor when he graduates in June, according to close friends of the athlete, who announced today that he had confided the secret to them.

Legendre was said to have turned down a number of "movie" offers at the close of the last college year in order to complete his studies and to have decided to accept a repeated offer at this time. He has given much time to amateur theatricals while at college.
