Gerstein Sets Senior 600-Yard Record as English High Wins Regimental Track Meet Again

chin down into his chest and lifted himself inches across the line the winner in the senior dash over Constantine Satchabell, the Bridgton runner, and for you could hear English High's noise up in Worcester. When Larry Scanlon, light-haired, loose-jointed, lanky Larry, picked up the baton in the 300-yard dash, he had a gallant home stretch fight closed no better than bring him home third behind Charley McArdle of Trade and Jim McElroy of South Boston. He could pick out a horse you'd here and there brushing aside a tear of disappointment. Things went that way in this greatest of great meetings.

RULE DEAD HEAT IN JUNIOR DASH

All afternoon there were battles of the fingers and the competent set of experienced A. A. U. judges were excited and went Democratic and some of the decisions, especially in the dashes, were hairline and the cause of many a controversy. None envied the judges their duties in the sprint selecting.

Take the junior dash for example. When the sector of finalists got through their 50-yard event, the judges, after a long conference, decided that J. Driscoll and F. Spector, both of Dorchester, had finished dead heat. The runner of Hyde Park and Sabby of Mechanic Arts so close there was no fun in it.

C. J. Ryan of Mechanic Arts High won the intermediate dash in 1:15.5 but the judges had to debate and debate again, and finally, by a process of elimination, put M. Schwartz of English J. Seltzer of Memorial and J. Feldman of Dorchester home in that order.

There wasn't any doubt about the winner of the senior sprint. Woods got a great lift at the start, but he was not the man to win. Satchabell, who was winding up his career, fought nobly, but just lacked the lift at the worsted. The time was 6:25.5.

Constantino showed winning state honors last weekend. Fairweather of Commerce and Hershoff of Dorchester were the other place winners.

SMITH HERE OF 176-YARD RUN

Al Hicks of English was in rare form over the high hurdles, gaining a flying verdict over his field in 1:15.5 seconds. It is too bad the competition wasn't better for the big bruiser. Vilkas was as clean out of as fiddler's Vilkas of Trade and Sabby of Mechanic Arts, the leading contestants in the junior and intermediate ranks respectively.

Each race around the ring shed had its top moments, but none more than the 176-yard run. Smith of English took the 176-yard run from the track off the late bank. In this race the English lad, who was easily the class of the field, was in the lead and rounding the first corner, he was flourishing. Only a racing spirit enabled him to pull up on the field in the back stretch and he made a dash for the finish against the bleachers in the home lane, he managed to lift himself even with and then pass J. O'Connor of Mechanic Arts in the final 25 yards. Sunday, out in form, making his own way might have filtered with the record.

Tony Lopresti helped the East Boston total with a front race, rush to the front, the runner in front, clearly from Frank Krigman of English and the time, 26:1.5, was only 3-5 from the record.

Thought the "300" would be a push-over for Scanlon, but he was slow off his mark in the final. After running all over the track trying to break the record, he was in a difficult position. The runner in front, clearly from Frank Krigman of English and the time, 26:1.5, was only 3-5 from the record.

MAINE BEATS BATES ON TRACK, 59 TO 58

Several Dual and Bates Gym Records Go by the Board
