Dear Jane:

It is my pleasure to inform you that I have chosen you to receive the Scott Hamilton Award for the RRCA's Most Outstanding Chapter President. This is a prestigious award in that clubs nominate the person they feel has best contributed to their club and has demonstrated excellence in his or her leadership. It is hard to choose among the nominees because all are superb volunteers who have dedicated countless hours and work to their respective clubs.

Jane, your leadership of the Maine Track Club was evident last year at the convention in Portland. My observations bear out the praise given to you in your nomination letter from the Maine Track Club.

We will formally present the award to you during the awards banquet on May 16th. Congratulations.

Warm regards,

Henley Gibbs

Ten years ago, Jane Dolley started running because she could do it year-round. She never imagined that seven years later she would find herself immersed in the business side of running. Voted outstanding chapter president of the 400-member Maine Track Club in 1986, she was also elected regional director of the Road Runners Club of America. "One thing led to another," says Dolley, 40, who works as a contract analyst for a life insurance company.

Currently serving her second term as the RRCA eastern director, Dolley functions as the direct link to the national office for 104 clubs with over 41,000 members. Her full agenda includes traveling every other weekend from her hometown of Yarmouth to West Virginia, where she visits and disseminates information to the clubs. "It's one of my favorite things to do," says Dolley.

And as if she didn't give enough of her time and energy to the sport, Dolley also chairs the Maine TAC Women's LDR Committee and directs (and cofounded) the Cape Challenge Half-Marathon. And she coached the men's team from Maine that competed in last year's Elkden relay race in New York City.

When she's not busy making contributions to the sport, her own running exploits include competing for her corporate track team, which won a national title in 1988. On the roads, Dolley surprised herself with a 3:21 PR at last year's Twin Cities Marathon.
