WHAT DO YOU SEE AS THE GREATEST SOCIAL SERVICE NEEDS IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY?

Low-income people have barriers standing in their way of breaking the cycle of poverty. We need to realize what these barriers are — social, economic, cultural, whatever — and figure out how to knock them down.

We can only do so much of throwing services over the barriers, saying, "Here's your housing, here's your heat." In the long run, we need to commit more money and time to teaching low-income people how to break down the barriers than to direct service remedies.
