

Father's Day 5K in Turner

DARYN SLOVER/SUN JOURNAL

Turner firefighter Rob Mains of Auburn crosses the finish line during the sixth annual Leavitt Fathers Day 5K Trail Run & Walk at Leavitt Area High School in Turner on Sunday. Sixty-nine people competed across Leavitt's cross country and Nordic ski trails in the rain to raise funds for the school's cross country team. Mains is one of five Turner firefighters to participate in the race.

Buy a print

DARYN SLOVER/SUN JOURNAL

Leavitt Area High School graduate Jason Prince helps his 9-year-old daughter, Evelyn, with her muddy shoes after they finished the sixth annual Leavitt Fathers Day 5K Trail Run & Walk at Leavitt Area High School in Turner on Sunday. Sixty-nine people competed across Leavitt's cross country and Nordic ski trails in the rain to raise funds for the school's cross country team. Prince graduated from Leavitt in 1993 and now lives in Brunswick.

Buy a print

DARYN SLOVER/SUN JOURNAL

Lincoln Tardy, 3, of Auburn cheers for his father, Jason Tardy, during the sixth annual Leavitt Fathers Day 5K Trail Run & Walk at Leavitt Area High School in Turner on Sunday. Juliana Rodrigue, 7, of Augusta is at left.

Buy a print

DARYN SLOVER/SUN JOURNAL

Tim Powell, 12, of Turner and his dad, Matt Powell, run through stretching exercises before the start of the sixth annual Leavitt Fathers Day 5K Trail Run & Walk at Leavitt Area High School in Turner on Sunday. Sixty-nine people competed across Leavitt's cross country and Nordic ski trails in the rain to raise funds for the school's cross country team.

Buy a print

DARYN SLOVER,

Lewiston-Auburn |

Sunday, June 21, 2015 at 6:00 pm