LAMOINE — More than 200 runners braved Saturday morning's chilly weather for the 11th annual Flattop 5K.

The race is held in honor of the late Bill Pinkham and named after his distinct crew cut hairstyle.

Pinkham, a longtime dedicated runner, was a fixture in the community before passing away in 2005 at the age of 62. He served as the former chief of the Maine Marine Patrol, as a state representative and as Lamoine's harbormaster.

Dave Kerschner, 30, of Old Town was the first male finisher in Saturday's race with a time of 16 minutes and 59 seconds. Tracy Guerette, 35, was the first female in 19:31.
