2011 Ludgren 5k Road Race Results

August 26, 2011

Londonderry's annual Ludgren 5k race, a part of the town's Old Home Day tradition, experienced another successful year. 280 competitors finished the race this year, with runners as young as 8-year-old Ryan Severn of Londonderry, to as seasoned as 86-year-old Lou Peters of Methuen, Massachusetts crossing the finish line.

Placing first overall this year was Kevin Balster, a 26-year-old Iowa resident who was reportedly visiting the area and made the last minute decision to compete. Balster crossed the finish line almost a full minute before this year's second place winner, Mitchell Sroka, 17 of Londonderry. Third place was captured by Andreas Geiger, also 17 of Londonderry.
